

Dawn Weiss is a highly acclaimed soloist and orchestral musician. She has played numerous concerti with: the Oregon Symphony, the Vancouver Symphony, the Mozart Chamber Players, and the Pasadena Symphony, among others, and has given recitals in the California, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Bolivia, Italy, Mexico, and Peru. As an orchestral musician, Ms. Weiss was the Principal Flutist of the Oregon Symphony for 25 years and also performed Principal Flute with the Mexico State Symphony, and 2nd flute with the Miami Philharmonic. Her chamber music group, Trillium Winds, recently released a solo/chamber music CD. Her trio, "The Weiss Family Woodwinds," will be re-releasing their highly acclaimed LP album onto CD format, which will include two World Premiers, which were recorded earlier this year. Ms. Weiss currently teaches for Flute Alliance, which offers "Flute Boot Camps" for teens and "BreakAway Flute Vacations" for Adults. She also maintains a flute studio in NW Beaverton.